

7. FURTHER COINS FROM THE LOCKETT COLLECTION

FOLLOWING the important purchases of coins from the first sale of Scottish coins from the Lockett Collection,<sup>3</sup> the Museum was enabled with a special Treasury Grant and further help from the Pilgrim Trust and the Lockett Executors to acquire 301 coins from the second and final sale.

<sup>2</sup> Dunning, G. C.: 'A Norman Pit at Pevensey Castle and its Contents', Ant. J., xxxviii (1958), 205-17.

The balance of the Pilgrim Trust's grant was expended on 5 gold coins, as follows:

- Robert III heavy lion (Burns fig. 351 var.)
- Robert III heavy lion (Burns fig. 356 var.)
- Robert III light lion (Burns fig. 420 var.)
- Robert III light demy (Burns No. 10b)
- James III half unicorn (Burns 1 var.)

The Lockett Executors' gift comprised 4 coins:

- David I sterlings Berwick (Burns fig. 1 var.) and Roxburgh (Burns fig. 6A var.)
- James IV unicorn (Burns fig. 687 var.)
- Mary forty-four shilling piece 1553 (Burns fig. 811 var.)

A further 45 coins of David I to Alexander II were bought and 168 double-cross sterlings of Alexander III. Of the later coins a few may be specified: David II and Robert III groats and James I penny, all of Aberdeen, James II 5 very rare groats of Edinburgh, James IV half-groat.
