

8. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The authors would like to thank the tireless work of all the members of the Edinburgh Archaeological Field Society who participated in the excavations at Cramond over the years and who first discovered the site. We would also like to acknowledge our fellow excavators from the City of Edinburgh Council Archaeology Service, David Reed, Julie Robertson, Dave Henderson and Mark Collard, and the City of Edinburgh Council for supporting and funding the project. In addition, we would like to acknowledge the help of Patrick Ashmore and Roderick McCullagh, formerly of Historic Scotland, in grant-aiding the C14 dating; SUERC staff for their comments on the dates; Lisa Brown, Kirsty Owen and Kevin Grant at Historic Environment Scotland for helping to fund this publication; and the in-kind help from Wessex Archaeology for the contribution of Dr Andrew Bicket. The authors would also like to thank Sam O’Leary of AOC Archaeology Group for his work on finalising the illustrations. Finally, we would like to thank the Cramond Heritage Trust and Cramond Association for their help and support in promoting and caring for this site.
