

nearly east and west, and of course are since the introduction of Christianity. I send a fragment of a cranium.

10. Notice of Stone Coffins found in Edinburgh opposite to Bellevue Church.—Communicated in a Letter to DR HIBBERT, by PATRICK NEILL, Esq. F.S.S.A.

In levelling for a new road immediately opposite to Bellevue Church, the workmen have disclosed one or two stone coffins. They are only about three and a half feet long. A cranium (smashed by a fellow with a spade) was of full growth. The graves lie