

each wherof there is to be fiftie foot, and twelve horsemen, who are ordered against the first of August nixt to be at the saids plaices, We have ordered you to convenie any thrie or four of the Commissioners off Excise off the shire of Stirling, in which the hous of Glentirran is, and have appointit you with the saids Commissioners and Captain Stuart, who has the command of these two Garifones, to fight the said hous off Glentirran, and to sie that the same be made readie to receive the garifone against the said day. As also, that you and the saids Commissioners caus furnish the garifone with bedding, potts, panes, coall, and candles, as is ordinar. And set pryces upoun the strae and corne for the horsis. And cause carie in and deliver to the Soydres at the garifone such quantaties as shall be necessarie for the horses, upoun peyment of the saids pryces. We expect your readie obedience, and ordaines you to returne to Us an accompt of your diligence betwixt and the tenth of August nixt.

We are your affectioned true freinds,

Ja. Dalrymple
Ch. Maitland

Douglas
Mar
Wintour
Kellie
Roffe
Belhaven

Rothies Cancell.
Alex. Glascuern.
Atholl
Argyll
Morraye
A. Primerose

Letter from the Privy Council of Scotland, directed thus :

*' To the Earle of Callander, Sherriff principall of the
' Shyre of Stirling. In haste .'

Right honourable,

WE haveing emitted ane Act appointing Garifons to be in divers Plaices, particularlie in the houses of Cardross and Glentirran, in catch

* From the original in the Antiquarian Museum.