

ADDRESS of One Hundred and Two Chief Heritors and Heads of Clans in the Highlands of Scotland, to King George I. on his Accession to the Throne, which, by Court Intrigue, was prevented from being delivered to his Majesty. The consequence was, that the Clans, in resentment of this supposed neglect, raised a Rebellion in the following year 1715.*

May it please your Majesty,

WE of the chief heritors and others in the Highlands of Scotland, under subscribing, beg leave to express the joy of our hearts at your Majesty's happy accession to the Crown of Great Britain. Your Majesty has the blood of our ancient Monarchs in your veins, and in your family; may that Royal Race ever continue to reign over us. Your Majesty's princely virtues, and the happy prospect we we have in your royal family, of an uninterrupted succession of Kings to sway the British scepter, must extinguish these divisions and contests, which in former times too much prevailed, and unite all who have the happiness to live under your Majesty, into a firm obedience and loyalty to your Majesty's person, family, and government; and as our predecessors have for many ages had the honour to distinguish themselves by their loyalty, so we do most humbly assure your Majesty, that we will reckon it our honour steadfastly to adhere to you, and with our lives and fortunes to support your crown and dignity against all opposers.

Pardon us, great Sir, to implore your royal protection against any who labour to misrepresent us, and who rather use their endeavours to create misunderstandings, than to engage the hearts of your subjects to that loyalty and cheerful affectionate obedience which we owe, and are ready to testify towards your Majesty. Under so excellent a King we are persuaded that we, and all your other peaceable faithful subjects, shall enjoy their just rights and liberties, and that our enemies shall not be able to hurt us with your Majesty, for whose royal favour we presume humbly to hope, as our forefathers were honoured with that of your Majesty's ancestors. Our mountains, though undervalued by some, are nevertheless acknowledged to have, in all times, been fruitful in producing hardy and gallant men, and such, we hope, shall never be wanting amongst us, who shall be ready to undergo all dangers in defence of your Majesty's, and your royal posterity's, only rightful title to the crown of Great Britain. Our behaviour shall always witness for us, that with unalterable firmness and zeal, we are,

May it please your Majesty,

your Majesty's most loyal,

most obedient, and most dutiful subjects and servants,

Alex.
