

9. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author is grateful to Scottish and Southern Electricity Networks who funded the excavation, consultants WSP, and specifically to the cultural heritage team for help and advice during fieldwork. The author would also like to thank Kirsty Cameron of the Highland Council Historic Environment Team for her support and guidance. They would also like to thank Global Infrastructure Ltd and Breedon Group plc for their support regarding access to the site and site clearance. The project would not have been possible without the team of excavators, Lindsey Stirling, Patrick Rowan, Peta Glew, and Steven Watt; as well as the post-excavation team and specialists: Aurimé Bočkutė, Dawn McLaren, Genoveva Dimova, Jackaline Robertson, Lynne Roy, Rob Engl, and Orlene McIlfatrick. Special thanks go to Lindsey Stirling, Sam O’Leary, and Mark Hoyle for production of the illustrations and to Mary Peteranna for management, supervision, support, and guidance throughout the project.
